Change daytime programs

In addition to time entries and corrections, day programs can also be exchanged in the daily view. To do this, click on the edit icon next to the day program:

The available daily programs are different depending on the client. After selecting the desired day program, click on the Save icon to accept the new day program for the selected day. With a click on the cancel symbol the change is canceled, the original day program appears again.