PAYROLL ON AUTOPILOT?

Get Digital with Personalwolke and Lohnbot

When working with external payroll providers, gaps in digital workflows and media breaks are common. The cycle—from recording working hours, to calculating pay, to issuing salaries—is often filled with manual steps that are time-consuming and labor-intensive.

Pay slips are still frequently printed and distributed, or sent via unencrypted email, which is not GDPR-compliant. This results in a costly and inefficient process.

In the digital age, this process can be made far simpler and more efficient through a reliable time-tracking system combined with a nearly autopilot payroll process using Lohnbot.
The following graphic illustrates how this workflow can look:

STEP
01

Time Tracking

Easily track working hours via computer, smartphone, tablet, or fixed terminal. Alternatively, entries can be made afterward through the Employee Self-Service portal.

Preliminary Payroll Calculations

Automatic calculation of overtime, remaining vacation days, sick leave, and non-productive hours is handled by Personalwolke.

STEP
03

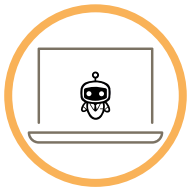

Data Transfer

All payroll-relevant data is displayed in a single view in Personalwolke. The system automatically detects changes in the digital personnel file, e.g., a change of residence. With the click of a button, all data is securely transmitted to Lohnbot.

Payroll Processing via Lohnbot

Monthly payroll and special payments are processed automatically by Lohnbot. It generates pay slips, transfer lists, and reports for authorities. Booking records are also sent directly to your accounting office.

Pay Slip Distribution

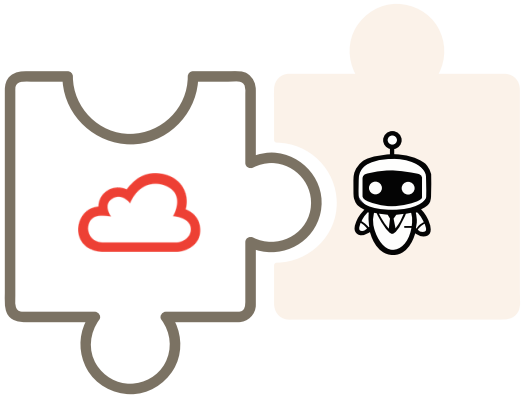

As an administrator, you upload pay slips to the employee's digital personnel file. Employees can view and download them through the Employee Self-Service portal—100% GDPR-compliant.
